Recognized Excellence

Established in 1975, UNC Lineberger Comprehensive Cancer Center is in the top tier of nationally recognized comprehensive cancer centers designated by the National Cancer Institute. We are the only public comprehensive cancer center serving the state and people of North Carolina.

Our physicians and scientists are leaders in the areas of cancer treatment, research, and prevention, advancing our knowledge of what causes cancer, how to prevent it and how best to treat it. We then apply that knowledge to provide patients, families and communities with the most up-to-date prevention strategies and newest therapies and to train future physicians, nurses, scientists and public health professionals.

At the N.C. Cancer Hospital, our team delivers true multi-disciplinary care with many of the nation's best doctors, nurses, scientists and specialists, meeting, conferring, debating, assessing, measuring, sharing and caring about only one thing — our patients. This type of integrated care helps patients make informed decisions and ensures continuity of care throughout their treatment.

Tribute and Memorial Gifts Make a Lasting Difference

The best hope for improving cancer care is research that advances our understanding of what causes cancer and how it progresses. UNC Lineberger and the N.C. Cancer Hospital bring together a world-renowned team intent on translating potentially life-saving discovery into action, ensuring that patients can access the newest cancer diagnostics, technology and treatments as quickly and safely as possible.

Memorial Gifts

Offer condolences to a friend or family member who has lost a loved one to cancer with a memorial gift. Memorial gifts are a meaningful expression of sympathy, providing a measure of hope during a time of loss.

If you wish to inform others of your desire to establish memorial giving for a member of your family, you may request that the funeral director include the following in the obituary notice: The family suggests memorial contributions to UNC Lineberger Comprehensive Cancer Center, CB #7295, Chapel Hill, NC, 27599-7295.

In general, memorial gifts are directed to areas of greatest promise in the fight against cancer. Or you may choose to direct memorial gifts of any size to a particular program area that has special significance to you or the person you wish to honor. With gifts of $25,000 or more, families may decide to establish an endowed memorial fund to be used for a specific purpose. If you are interested in establishing an endowed memorial fund, please call our office at (919) 966-5905 to discuss these options.

Through your tribute or memorial gift, you are joining our dedicated researchers as they search for advances in cancer research and prevention, our physicians as they provide the most advanced treatments to patients, and our caring staff who serve patients and families from across North Carolina and beyond.

We'll promptly send an acknowledgement of your thoughtfulness to whomever you designate.
